

interim fundraising solutions

what is Fundraising Placements?

Fundraising Placements is an interim solution to staff shortages, bridging the gap between recruitment problems and staff absence in your fundraising department. It is also a means of testing new areas of fundraising before you commit significant resources.

Call us now to see how we can help: 01785 663600

E: info@wgconsulting.co.uk W: wgconsulting.co.uk

how do Fundraising Placements work?

From our team of experienced fundraisers we select the right person to fill your fundraising role, whether at management or practitioner level. Our team offers a wide range of experience and can fill the gap in:

- fundraising management
- trust fundraising
- statutory fundraising
- lottery and major bids
- corporate fundraising
- legacy promotion
- capital fundraising
- funder research

who we are...

Fundraising Placements is a division of Wootton George Consulting, which has been offering interim fundraising solutions and consultancy since 1998. We are NCVO Approved Consultants, as well as being Corporate Members of the Association of Fundraising Consultants. Between us, our consultants have over 200 years of fundraising experience and have raised many millions of pounds.

what it costs

There is no recruitment fee and all work is charged at an agreed daily rate, which depends on the type and volume of work to be delivered. We offer a free discussion of your needs and a free written proposal. All charges are agreed and a contract signed before any work starts. We find that clients come back to us again and again, as we seek always to deliver excellent value for money.

what else do we do?

As well as offering interim fundraising solutions, we provide a wide range of consultancy services, covering such areas as fundraising healthchecks, strategy development, feasibility studies, business planning, capital appeal development, mentoring support and advice on social enterprise. Contact us today for further details.

how to find out more

To discuss your fundraising needs, please call us for a free Initial discussion. See the reverse for details or visit our website at wgconsulting.co.uk

"It has been a real pleasure working with Wootton George Consulting. Their results have been fantastic. As a company, they are very professional, knowledgeable, flexible and easy to work with."

Kate Shaw, Ripple Appeal Manager
Treetops Hospice

"I would be delighted to recommend your consultancy to other organisations."

Lynne Farnell, Head of Fundraising
Museum of Science and Industry,
Manchester

"I look forward to continuing our successful and hugely enjoyable relationship."

Judith Kilvington, Executive Director
Graeae Theatre Company, London

"Things are going well on the trust fundraising front and we have already passed our target for this year... your consultant is excellent and I feel we made a good choice in appointing Wootton George."

Elizabeth Twining, Head of Fundraising
Calibre Audio Library

Affiliations:

